CEREMONY SPACES

From intimate vows to grand celebrations, we offer a range of grand ceremony spaces, wether inside the palace state apartments or outside in the formal gardens:

THE QUEEN'S GUARD CHAMBER

Elegant and intimate, the Queen's Guard Chamber offers a refined setting for wedding ceremonies within the Palace. Its historic charm and proximity to the State Apartments make it ideal for couples seeking a regal yet personal ceremony space.

Capacity: Up to 120 guests

GREAT WATCHING CHAMBER

Once the ceremonial entrance to the Tudor court, the Great Watching Chamber is an impressive and historic setting for wedding ceremonies. With its grand and rich Tudor detailing, it creates a dramatic arrival experience and a memorable backdrop for your vows.

Capacity: Up to 100 guests

KING'S GUARD CHAMBER

The King's Guard Chamber, rich in character and history, creates a truly memorable setting for your ceremony. Guests will ascend the breathtaking King's Staircase, arriving amidst historic displays that make your celebration feel truly extraordinary.

Capacity: Up to 140 guests

LITTLE BANQUETING HOUSE

Set beside the River Thames, The Little Banqueting House is perfect for intimate wedding ceremonies and smaller celebrations. With its exclusive riverside garden, it can be used either as a stand-alone venue or alongside the Palace for couples wishing to combine a private ceremony with a larger palace celebration.

Capacity: Up to 50 guests

THE GARDEN ROOM

For couples seeking a more contemporary feel, The Garden Room offers a light-filled, modern space set within its own private walled garden. Ideal for civil ceremonies, it can be used as a stand-alone wedding venue or in conjunction with the Palace, allowing a seamless blend of modern celebration and historic splendour.

Capacity: Up to 180 guests

ORANGERY & PRIVY GARDEN

For an outdoor ceremony with exceptional heritage, the Privy Garden offers a romantic and tranquil setting within the Palace grounds. Surrounded by formal planting, historic architecture and views of the river, it provides a stunning open-air backdrop for exchanging vows. Also the ideal spot to enjoy a drinks reception before heading into the palace for your wedding breakfast.

Capacity: Up to 140 guests

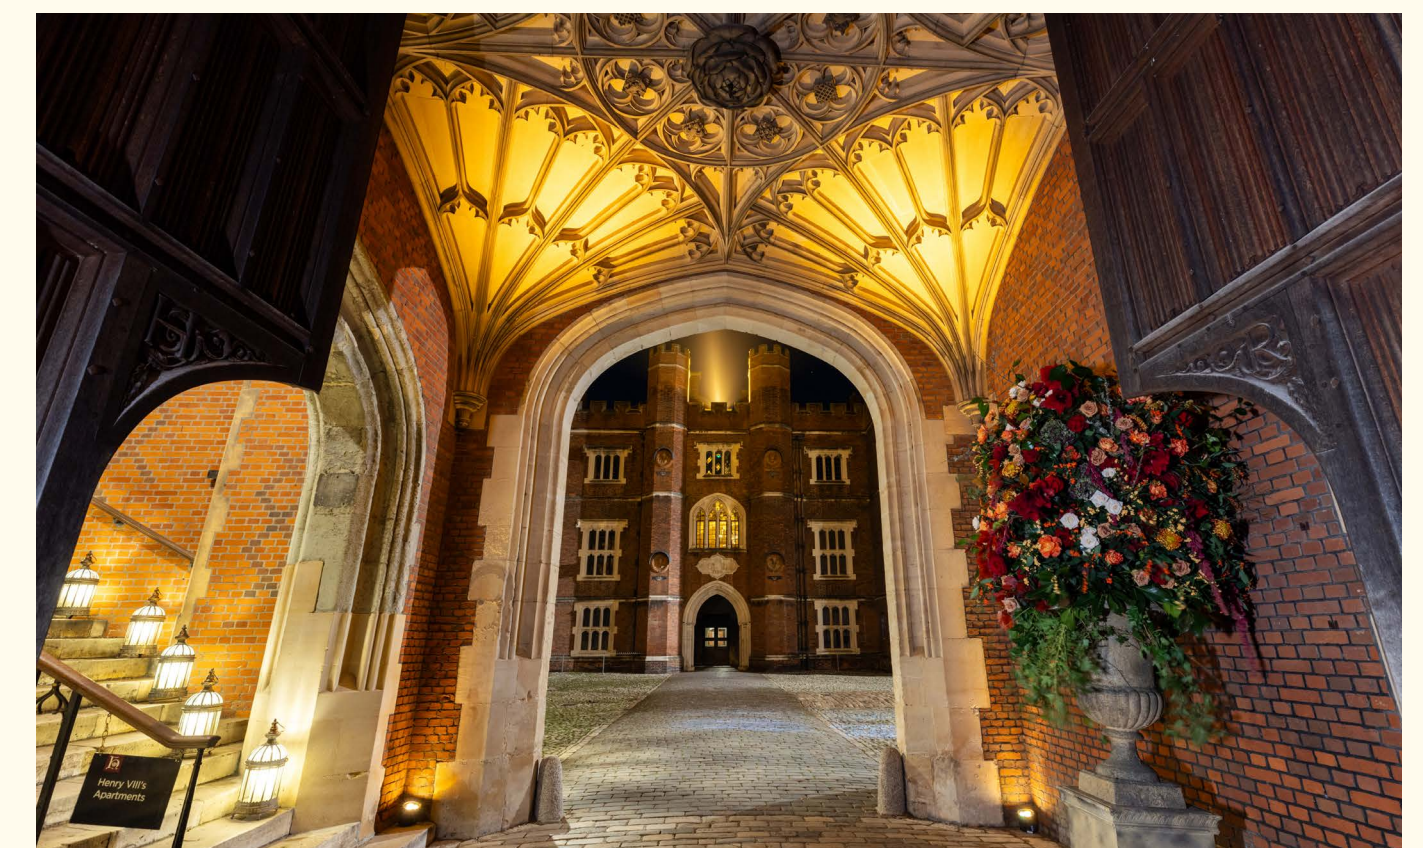

RECEPTIONS & WEDDING BREAKFAST

CLOCK COURT

Clock Court is where Tudor architecture meets Baroque elegance. Anne Boleyn's Gateway and the Clock Tower frame this historic space, which features a sixteenth-century astronomical clock and Wren's grand colonnade, designed to create a formal entrance to William III's State Apartments. Now available for drinks receptions, Clock Court offers a striking and atmospheric setting for guests to enjoy in the heart of the palace.

Capacity:
Up to 400 guests for a drinks reception

THE GREAT HALL

Host a drinks reception or wedding breakfast in one of England's most iconic historic spaces. The Great Hall's dramatic Tudor architecture and soaring ceiling create an unforgettable atmosphere, perfect for toasts, mingling and grand celebrations.

KING'S GUARD CHAMBER

Providing intimate, atmospheric settings for drinks and dining. Ideal for smaller receptions or wedding breakfasts, the rich décor and period detail create a warm, elegant ambience for guests to enjoy the first moments of celebration.

Capacity:

Up to 200 guests for a drinks reception

Up to 150 guests for dining

KING'S EATING ROOM

Steeped in history and royal heritage, the King's Eating Room offers an elegant and intimate environment for wedding breakfasts or smaller drinks receptions. Its richly decorated interior provides a historic yet welcoming setting for seated dining or post-ceremony refreshments.

LITTLE BANQUETING HOUSE

Perfect for intimate wedding breakfasts or drinks receptions, the Little Banqueting House sits beside the River Thames and opens onto its private garden. Guests can enjoy a serene riverside setting for canapés and champagne before moving to the Palace for larger celebrations, or the venue can serve as a self-contained celebration space for smaller gatherings.

Capacity:
Up to 80 guests for a drinks reception

THE GARDEN ROOM

Flooded with natural light and surrounded by its private walled garden, The Garden Room offers a modern and versatile space for wedding breakfasts or drinks receptions. It can be used alone or alongside the Palace for a seamless, contemporary-meets-historic experience. Doors open onto the garden for alfresco drinks or can accommodate a marquee-style dining setup on the lawns.

CULTURAL WEDDINGS

Hampton Court Palace's versatile spaces, high ceilings and open layouts make it especially well-suited to cultural weddings, including Asian and Jewish celebrations. The Garden Room comfortably accommodates mandap structures and large guest numbers, while courtyards and palace façades offer dramatic settings for baraat processions and ceremonial entrances.

Approved suppliers experienced in cultural catering, décor and entertainment ensure every tradition is honoured beautifully.

EVENING CELEBRATIONS

THE UNDERCROFT

The Undercroft offers a historic and atmospheric setting for intimate evening gatherings. Its vaulted ceilings and exposed brickwork create a unique backdrop for cocktails, live music, or smaller evening receptions. Perfect for couples looking to combine history with a relaxed, private celebration.

Capacity:
Up to 220 guests, but can extend to 250* with minimal furniture

MARQUEE SITES

For larger weddings and celebrations, Hampton Court Palace offers a variety of stunning outdoor spaces for marquee-style events. Fountain Court, Base Court, and the East Front Gardens provide dramatic historic backdrops, allowing for bespoke layouts and elegant designs. Whether for a grand dining experience, dancing, or a combination of both, these spaces let you create a truly memorable celebration that blends the grandeur of the Palace with the flexibility of outdoor entertaining.
